Blue, 2 owners, This one comes with Panniers, head lamp cover, fairing protector guards, hand guards and heated grips. There was a time when Yamahaâ€™s Tenere range of bikes ruled the earth, literally. As desert and dirt blasters for Paris-Dakar like competitions, the name Tenere became synonymous with adventure and off-road riding. Then it all went quiet and BMW took on the mantle of Adventure bike champions with its modern-day GS range. Yamahaâ€™s revival started with the 2008 XT660Z Tenere, a delightful 660cc single-cylinder thumper dressed in traditional desert-romping plastics (high screen and seat height, long suspension). The introduction of the XT1200Z Super Tenere carries this adventure theme further. The North Westâ€™s finest family run motorcycle dealership, £6,995 p/x
