Bruce Broughton, The professional photographer available for all your family events and business needs. Portraits, parties, weddings and family days, photographs of your home or business, your products and services, all tailor made to suit your requirements. For larger family or corporate events such as weddings, christenings, business functions etc, I will need to come and discuss your needs and visit the venue in advance. Please contact me for a no obligation advice and estimate. www.bruce-broughton.com. One hour photo-shoots are great fun and will give you some beautiful images. How about one of our photo-shoot gift vouchers to give a wonderful surprise to a friend or loved one, or yourself! After adjustment and correction of the shots in Photoshop I add the images to your own private secure page on my website from which you can choose the photographs that you want printed, put in a photo book, burnt to a DVD or sent to you by email. I love my photography, you will love my.
