i have 3 month old baby bearded dragons for sale, all very active and eating me out of house and home.. they are on medium crickets mini mealworms, waxworms and also eating fruits and veg... at the moment they are on kitchen towel but should be able to have sand or other substrate by the time they are 6 months old.. they are still being sprayed a couple of times with water as they are still very unsure how to drink from water bowl. they are beautiful colours, some have a slight orangeyellow tan due to having a blood line of blood reds.. mum and dad can be seen if you wish they have lovely temperaments and love their cuddles and strokes. i will hold them providing i have a deposit and i will charge a small fee for food and board for however long you wish me to keep them.. i CAN NOT ship them.. if interested please get in contact;
