Location South East, East Sussex

This is a genuine Rodriguez C1 spanish guitar made in spain (not China). The Guitar is near mint condition, just one tiny mark on the front of the guitar. Standard size with nylon strings. I am also including a guitar stand, soft case, spare set of strings, and also included is an electronic tuner. This is a beautiful guitar that sounds as good as it looks and would make a great xmas present. The Guitar and accessories would be over £400 if bought new, and this particular Rodriguez was purchased over 6 years ago, I think current C1 models are now being built in China! The guitar is signed by Manuel Rodriguez, I have included pictures for you to view. Collection from Uckfield, East Sussex. I may be able to meet or deliver depending on distance.;
