Sensu'Elle is delighted to announce her 6 week Burlesque classes begin on Wednesday 9th March 2016. With over six years' experience working as a Burlesque Performer and four years experience teaching, she invites ladies to join her, regardless of age or experience, to share hints, tips and tassels in the art of Burlesque. Whether you have aspirations of becoming a Burlesque performer, or would simply like to attend the course for pleasure, we will be looking at the various styles of Burlesque, its history and place in popular culture today. You will learn some techniques in the art of the strip tease to enable you to feel more confident and feminine that you may put into practise during your everyday life....look out Sainsbury's!! Stage One Class 7.30-8.30pm No experience is necessary class. During this class we will be looking at the importance of posture and poise whilst walking, standing and sitting. You will enjoy the opportunity of playing with boas and learn to tease with evening glove removal. We will also be looking at the art of removing outer layers of clothing and the use of hats in a Burlesque routine. Towards the end of the course you will have learnt a basic Burlesque routine and have some useful tools to take away with you to create some magical routines by yourself. Following the six week course is a Student Show where there will be an opportunity to make your Burlesque debut's and showcase your routines for those that feel ready to do so. Dates for the Wednesday night classes are as follows: 9th, 16th, 23rd & 30th March and 6th & 13th April. Showcase is 16th April 2016 Each 6 week course costs £65 BOOKING IS ESSENTIAL due to space limitations. Age limit 18+. No nudity involved. Full Public Liability Insurance. Registered with Equity.
