Yamaha xt 125cc. Has a rip on the seat but a new seat costs £30 the most. Has half a years Mot left. One of the front indicator bulbs need changing. Just had a new rear tyre put on it. Just had the brakes bled and redone. Am selling it quite cheap due to wanting it gone. The brake and clutch leavers has the ends snapped off due to previous owner. Want gone so as possible. Comes with a big lock and a disc lock. And can also throw in a pretty much new helmet Thanks;
