I have for sale my floating tv wall unit, it was bought a week ago, the reason I am selling it so soon is it is unsuitable for my wall it is white gloss and matt finish with two opening half drawers on the front with a set of led lights included in the sale, in the pictures it is shown to have blue doors, these doors are not blue, it is just a blue protective cover to protect the gloss finish on the doors, and can be easily peeled off, the illustration shows legs, it has no legs as it is a floating shelf, it is just sitting on a white table, it is a very modern piece of furniture to compliment your lounge, buyer must.
