This car is very clean and is running great. There is only one issue although it doesn't affect the driving, only the performance. There is one ignition coil that is on its way out at the moment. This car might be a 2001 but it sure doesn't look like it with its great paint, cream leather interior with wood trim, and the sport of the semi-automatic. I purchased this car from the only owner of this car in Southern Ireland so there are Irish plates. However, the NCT which is the MOT is valid until.
