Feel free to contact me for proof of skills. I'm in the final few months of a postgraduate degree in English Literature at the University of Lincoln. I am looking for work experience outside of academia that puts the skills I have learnt to use. My degrees have helped me learn to prioritize tasks and work to deadlines. I am a hard worker and always get tasks done as quickly and professionally as possible. In particular at university I have developed the following skills;

- Proofreading- Having written many essays over the years I have developed the skill to look back through my own work and make sure my work flows.
- Editing- As above, having to write many essays has helped me hone my skills to edit my own work and pull essay grades up from 2:2 to 2:1.
- Audio Transcription- Through using a voice recorder in lectures I have developed the skill to transcribe 50 minute lectures in up to 90 minutes.
- Copy writing- Through the amount of lectures and seminars I have built up the skill

In my spare time I write and edit fan fiction which has helped me to gain confidence with my.
