First of all, thank you for taking the time to read this advert. The reason for "it" is because I have spent too many years making other people money as a sales manager, when I could have just done it myself and kept all the profit! Oh my life; if only I had of done this instead of that... well, no point in living in the past, it is now time to forge ahead on a new journey. Therefore, I am looking for people with stock for sale whom need someone to push this stock out for them into directions that they would not have considered before. I am prepared to work with new business owners in order to drive your business forward in order to take a percentage when it eventually begins to show profit. In fact, if you have an idea, but are not sure how to move it forward; then please get in touch with me in the first instance. Thank.
