The 2016 show season for the South of England Agricultural Society gets underway with the Spring Garden & Leisure Show on Bank Holiday Sunday 1 & Monday 2 May at the South of England Showground in Ardingly, West Sussex. Gardening and plants will be centre stage in the ever-popular Gardening Theatre, where Jean Griffin of BBC Sussex, Surrey and Kent will return as the resident gardening expert for the weekend, chairing another exciting programme of Q&A sessions with a panel of experts. On Sunday, the panel includes Ian Clemens, a National Vegetable Society Judge who specialises in growing mammoth vegetables, James Cordingley, Head Gardener at Groombridge Place in Kent and Steve Edney, Head Gardener of the Salutation Gardens in Sandwich. Monday's panel will comprise of Jim Buttress of BBC2's The Big Allotment Challenge and Peter Holman of London in Bloom and South & South East in Bloom. This popular pit stop for green-fingered enthusiasts is aimed at the amateur gardener aiming to dispel myths and generate new interests and ideas. Gardening enthusiasts can also enjoy an inspiring plant and nursery area with thousands of plants to choose from and a huge range of gardening equipment to buy. There is still time to enter the new Floristry Competition too – it's free and open to both novice and experienced flower arrangers. Bank holiday family fun is spread across the entire weekend with leisure activities for all ages including the Fur and Feather display; the Crufts Qualifying Open Dog Show; the much loved 'Mini Sheep Show' and a fantastic fairground. Under 16's go free when accompanied by a paying adult. The Society is also setting challenges at the show this year, so come and test your skills at the new caravan manoeuvring course run by The Caravan Club or try your hand at archery and target shooting. There is also the chance to have a go at FootGolf, the UK's fastest growing sport, with Tilgate Forest Golf Centre's 3-Hole FootGolf Course which is suitable for all ages and all sporting abilities. Visit the Countryside Hub at the Discover the Countryside Area and see how you can get a go at a variety of activities including archery, target shooting, well as a range of other activities. You can also see the popular Duck Toss and other activities. The show will include the famous South of England National Alpaca Show where you can see these fascinating animals. The show will also feature a range of other activities including a range of food and drink options. There will be many other tasty treats to take home from the show as well as hours of shopping including country crafts and clothing, gifts and toys, homewares, wellies and handbags! Admission: Under 16s go FREE (when accompanied by a paying adult £10); senior citizens and students over 6 £8.
