This is the oversize (15 ½" x 10 ¼") portfolio released in 1988 by DC. It includes the French & American covers as well as the six promo posters. It is in very good condition. The outer cover has some minor edge wear and corner creasing, but is otherwise in very good condition. The inner artwork is all in near mint condition. Some of the posters have been mounted previously and there is some dry light adhesive residue, but this doesn't affect the condition of the front image. These are really nice card posters for a Watchmen.
