www.penbutnopencilphotography.co.uk I am a Brighton based Photographer, specialising in Urban and Landscape photography. All photographs are copyrighted and owned by PenButNoPencil-Photography. I'm available for low key intimate events, available all over Sussex. So what inspires me to photograph Landscapes? I remember a time as a child being taken up Devils Dyke in Sussex and my parents would say 'Look at the view'. I've now found myself saying the same to my children. Is it the views? It has to be, to create an almost living memory with as much detail in the foreground and depth of field in the background. I love watching the light play through the clouds. Highlighting copse's and picking out the best areas. I've been lucky enough to visit Wales and Cumbria. The mountains and the lakes are some of the best I have seen. I'm keen to travel to these places and wild camp to experience to the sunsets and sunrises. For me thats where the magic happens, the golden light. In the future I'm planning on kayak trips up rivers to be able to explore the places that cant be reached by foot. If you are interested in my photography feel free to open the 'MyCollection' tab and browse my best images. For all other enquiries feel free to contact for me chat. Trev, PenButNoPencil
