2002 Impreza wrx sti prodrive type UK. 6owners (me since 2011) fsh, bailey dump valve, ppp. 149346 miles, 18" oz prodrive alloys, boost gauge, one small dent above wheel (see pic) don't be fooled by a WRX, an STI is 80% different (better) than a WRX, from engine to suspension to brakes. Very quick car that has never let me down, only selling as have a baby on the way. Quite simply the best car I've ever owned, super car performance in a four door saloon. Quick sale needed so realistic offers.
