1/400 scale plastic model kit of WW2 German Kriegsmarine heavy cruiser Admiral Hipper, (Prinz Eugen class). Super rare warship kit. There are lots of aftermarket upgrade sets now which are easily available, so you can make this into a fabulous model! New, and with all instructions, etc. Box is a little worse for wear from time only, but still good and intact. Am selling off my stash of unmade model warship kits, as my eyes ain't what they used to be! Could post, but only if requested..
