A matched pair of antique lantern heads. They look like they were originally gas powered, judging by the internal mechanism/heat deflector. Possibly old street lights??? Tapered hexagonal shape, 'flip top' ornamental lid, approx 30 inches high overall, approx 15 inches wide overall. Bases have adjustable bolts to suit various sized mounting poles. One pane of glass missing, but an easy replacement. Would look great on a country pub wall or at the end of a driveway when updated to electric power. Will split, £30.00 each or £50.00 the pair. Collection only from Bognor.
