TEAC 255 DAB System; CD, FM/ DAB matching TEAC speakers and remote control. Comes in original box c/w manual. Some marks on the CD tray and one of the speaker grilles is distorted. I wouldn't bother with the grilles as they hide the superb drivers on these speakers. Teac's all-in-one Reference 255 system featuring CR-H255 CD/DAB receiver has a useful feature - the ability to save any source audio directly to a USB flash memory stick/pen drive. Most USB pen drives will do, but some MP3 players with proprietary software or that do not follow a FAT 32 file format standard will cause problems. In theory, a product like the Disgo should work, as it fits the bill as a pen drive for storing MP3 files and other data. The CR-H255 handles the flexible MP3/WMA encoding/decoding process - the pen drive stores the data. The CR-H255 features a CD player with DAB/FM/AM receiver and no less than four stereo audio inputs - one of which is a 3.5mm input located on the front - and 2 outputs and an optical out, too . 10 DAB, 30 FM and 30AM memory presets are programmable. 'Round the back are proper 4mm binding posts, which enable you to get a good connection with the speaker cable. Key Features
