SKMB CIC is a small business located near Epsom, And we supply training services for anyone in the community. We also wish to help anyone that has not been given the opportunity to succeed, because of any reason, and hope to help them move on to a better future, helping them grow their knowledge in what ever they need. We also go through the extra process of doing a skills assessment for your chosen topic and will give you more support as the training takes place. We have a range of different things that we can train you in that can be found on our website.;
