Hi. I am 28 years old currently living in Swindon with my ex partner which is an awkward situation and not good for my mental health, so looking to move to Plymouth end of Aug/beginning of Sept. I am looking for a 1 bed flat/studio near to city centre (not in) with parking that will allow my cat. Preferably the property would have white goods in the kitchen (and a bath if possible). I have my own bedroom furniture so unfurnished or part furnished would be great. I am hoping for something around £350.
