Hi there Ok...here's the plan. You email, to make a date / time for you to call for your phone reading...I will give you the tel no when you've emailed. A photo might be helpful, but not necessary. Clearly I can't 'read' your facial responses to what I'm saying, or see a wedding ring etc. on the phone. :) I do tarot and spiritual connection readings...usually both at once...although I cannot guarantee to get spirit through every time and possibly not the specific person that you'd like to communicate with...although it can happen. Currently I'm only charging £15 for a reading...and you would have to pay into my paypal account. I have to state, by law, that: "THIS IS AN EXPERIMENT ONLY AND JUST FOR FUN.... and anything I say / tell you is not intended to be used to direct your life. Also, I do not predict the future or diagnose illness etc." When booking your appointment with me, you will need to confirm that you understand the above statement. Thank you :) ;
