This car is in excellent condition for it's age. The only negative at the moment is the engine management light has recently come on, which I think might be related to the exhaust. I am opens to offers for the car, as a baby on the way is forcing me to buy a car with more seats. I still love this car and will be sad to see it go. It has a FULL BMW service history, extremely low milage at 48200 miles, two keys, and 4 brand new run flat Bridgestone tires for its last MOT. There are of course a few little marks and chips here and there, as you'd expect on a 9 year old car, but once it's washed it looks almost new.;
