For sale Vespa's 1960's styled special edition GTV 125 NAVY model finished in navy blue. If you are here, you know what you are looking for. The GTV comes a significant premium over the GTS, which adds retro instrumentation, a small windscreen, chrome handlebars, a mudguard mounted headlight and a gorgeous split leather seat. It is in excellent condition (apart slightly rusted exhaust) for its age, tidy and runs as is should with around 14450 miles on the clock. It has full service history stamped in the service book. Last was in June '15, with belt changed, spark plug and all the oils, clutch and rollers checked and new rear tyre fitted before last MOT. It has just been MOT'd till August '17. Unfortunately, after last service, they left small scratch on the side, pictured. It has factory fitted immobilizer and comes with owner's manual, matching top box, red key and spare top box key. I didn't use top box at all, but received it scratched. The only thing about it, I have had a small accident on this scooter and claimed insurance (as had full comp insurance on it). For my surprise it has been written off for cosmetic damage to cat D (which does not affect the insurance). I have re-spayed it and went through the new MOT straight away with no issues whatsoever. This scooter is currently in the garage on SORN, as I don't ride on it, so it's no point for me to insure it. Road Tax cost me £18 and Third Party insurance £107 a year.
