Training 4 U Services offer ESOL Skills for Life qualifications for people aged 16 and over who live in the UK and need English for everyday life and for work. They are designed to help people progress into mainstream education and employment. They are available at five levels, each of which is an individual qualification in its own right. A free* initial assessment is carried out and a programme is designed to support the learner in achieving the level they are on. The duration of the course can be from 8 weeks to 32 weeks subject to level. * Subject to the individuals circumstances.
