I am a qualified and experienced teacher. More than 23 years experience in England and abroad. Some of my work and clients including: 'BBC - Proof reading and translation for a Brazilian documentary about Brazilian Culture, music and government.' Private Tutor for the Foreign & Commonwealth Office. A Star teachers agency, where I worked as a translator/interpreter, Kingston Adult Education.' Gramafilm translator for an advertisement, translator/interpreter for 60 officials from the Brazilian Defence Forces who came to London for a week of training and conferences at the Defence and Security Exhibition International at Brimshill Police College.

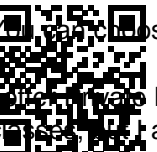

My most recent works were for yolino.tv as I am their Brazilian Portuguese teacher for their video lessons and I am also one of the voices for the New Colloquial Portuguese of Brazil, by Viviane Gontijo.

I have a degree in Languages from Brazil (Portuguese and English) and qualifications from the UK: An OCR Diploma to teach Foreign languages to adults, a City & Guilds teaching training, a Health & Safety Awareness certificate - amongst others.

I can also use to teach my lessons in my own classrooms, up to 5 students in each classroom. I have my own Brazilian Portuguese lessons in my own classrooms in Shepherds Bush, teach me, I can also have a small group of qualified and experienced teachers who work with me under my guidance.

Together we teach in my classroom in Shepherds Bush W2 8QC is our new classrooms in Central London (Oxford Circus and Piccadilly Circus), via Skype or (Face Time - for Apple users) or we can visit you at a venue you choose, either your home, office or even a cafe and anywhere in London.
