Being a live in care worker offers a real sense of purpose and immense job satisfaction. Our customers will rely upon you for support with all aspects of their daily living. You will enjoy the special privilege of living in a customer's home. You will provide each customer with a bespoke care experience tailored to their specific needs and preferences. As a live in care assistant some of your duties will include supporting customers with the following: Pursuing an active social life All aspects of personal hygiene Variety of household tasks The service gives customers the reassurance of 24-hour support in the comfort of their own homes. However, live in care workers are not expected to be continuously on duty for 24 hours, you will have prearranged rest periods each day. Qualities such as empathy and an ability to understand the conditions of each customer and the impact it has on their loved ones are essential. We provide full training so previous experience is not essential. All our care staff are carefully chosen and fully trained to provide a safe, professional and friendly service. If you are dedicated and passionate about making a real difference to people's lives and want a career you can be proud of, this could be the role for.
