Tried and tested the Yamaha F310 functional and good sounding, easy to play 6 string Acousti. I have 2 of these, this one is near near just one unfortunate mark..which you may be able to pick out. Its on the topleft shoulder....cant see it? Thats it !!Hardly used, strings are as new, ready to go. Not priced for a quick sale, but priced at its worth to a beginner who wants to try to learn at start and wont be put off. So why buy inferior, use this to start with and dont go back and dont need to go out and buy overpriced to begin.
