1930s iron framed overstrung piano by Amylette, in a beautiful art deco style walnut veneered case. 137mm x 96mm. Full size keyboard but much less bulky than a normal upright. Plays well but in need of tuning, which would be necessary after moving anyway. There are a couple of water marks on the lid and a sellotape mark on the front, both of which would probably polish out with the right treatment. Otherwise in very good condition. Professional piano movers are recommended as, like all good pianos, this is a very heavy instrument. Located on ground floor rear of.
