This instrument is in 'as new' condition and is an ideal Christmas present for the aspiring young musician in your family. Weighted keys imitate the action of a real piano, while a choice of multiple rhythms, voices, and tempos add the benefits of the digital age. An accessory sustain-pedal and beginner's pack with teaching CD's are included. Various input and output sockets enable the use of headphones for silent practice as well as uploading and downloading files to and from external devices. A magic gift for just £200 or near cash offer. Regret, collection only. No online transfers and only cash will be.
