Perfect for beginners, the Stagg ¾-size classical guitar is often the starter instrument recommended by teachers for students wishing to learn any kind of guitar. My lad used it over 2 years for out-of-school guitar lessons and practice so it shows some signs of use. It's a ¾-size natural-coloured, high-gloss finish, classical guitar with basswood top, back and sides, nato neck, painted maple fingerboard and bridge, and nickel machine heads. The scale length is 590mm (23.2"). Purchased and sold here as a package, it includes the ¾-size classical guitar, pitch pipes, guitar bag, and 5 spare strings. It's from a pet and smoke free home, and offers will be.
