This Canon EOS 1300D was bought to take a photography course in September 2016. It is very easy to use and the controls are well placed. Look at the reviews to see that it is well rated. Since buying the camera it has taken just over 400 pictures. A camera like this can take 250,000 - 500,000 pictures before you can expect problems. It has also taken about 6, 10 minute videos. This camera is in pristine condition with all the original items, manual and box in original condition. There are no marks or scratches. Also included are 3 batteries, (1 original and 2 non-canon), a daylight filter and screen protector.

The Canon EOS 1300D Digital Camera combines performance with ease of use. It features an 18 MP CMOS sensor that captures clear images and videos. For a wide viewing angle, it has a 3-inch TFT LCD monitor and a Pentamirror viewfinder. This digital camera comes with an EF-S IS III lens that offers a minimum focal length of 18 mm and a maximum focal length of 55 mm. In addition, this Canon SLR camera is available in black.
