Due to unforseen studying I am looking for someone to share/ part loan my beautiful boy bugsy. He is a massive confidence giver, after coming off a different horse and almost breaking my back i could barely ride anything. I got bugsy and now a year later I'm back to my old riding level. He has taught 6 year olds to ride but he's not a plod. He is a great hacker and a great ground worker. As he is a ex showjumper he has to take it easy jumping but can only be jumped by experienced people. He's 20 and 15.2 but don't let that put you off he is still so full of energy. Hes not spooky at all, fine with fast roads, dogs really anything. I'm looking for someone to give him loads of love and attention any day of the week and Saturdays are avaliable if you wish, I'm very flexible. Currently at a gorgeous yard right at the bottom of the downs with huge hacking and a 40 meter school with.
