Montefrio has been voted recently as one of the top 10 towns in the world with spectacular views. And you get this view from the plot. Over the olive groves to the town below. Particularly beautiful in the evenings when the town is lit up and stars out. Not much industry so clean clear air. Although only 8 minutes drive to the centre of town you are most definitely in the campo. Plot has olive, fig, almonds amongst other types of trees. A nave with electricity as well as a caravan are in place. Well water and plenty of room for growing. Architect plans and planning permissions granted although Permission has lapsed but can be reinstated. Looked long time for plot but circumstances forces sale. further info pls. E mail click to contact Montefrio is 1 hour 20 minutes Malaga airport or 40 minutes Granada. The pretty town has supermarkets, many bars with free tapas, shops, banks and all you need for daily living. British families already established in the area. Spanish friendly lot. Photos are town and the municipal pool and bar open summer months. 8 minute drive. The town is home to round church and dolmens for people interested in his history. ;
