People seek therapy for a myriad of reasons. You may be feeling lost or stuck, in need of additional support during a difficult time, anxious, overwhelmed or dissatisfied with life. You may want to look at repeated patterns or events, or journey in self-discovery.

Therapy can offer a space explore these issues and feelings. To help you start to find the answers you are seeking. I offer a safe, confidential and respectful space where we can build the trust between us and work together for a deeper understanding of the issues you bring and look at changes you may want to.
