Yamaha wrx125 supermoto I love this bike i will be very sad to see it go. Only selling due to purchasing another vehicle and wont have much need for it There are a couple minor issues with the bike, there a 2 cracked fairings and there may be an issue with the starter motor. However the bike starts with a bump start first time, every time and the bike runs fine. Other than these issues the bike has never let me down and runs.
