With sadness I am selling my LC 350 powervalve. All original parts to go back to standard stock. So it has the wheels, forks, brakes of a FZR 400 Engine is a F2 powervalve MOT runs out in mid May Sorned Low milage Gison exhausts Only did 300 miles and that was all done in april/may last year. Done 1,819 miles since 2007 (have MOT certificate) Body kit painted professionally about 5 years ago. I am starting it at £1750 and will see where it takes me, thought I would put it on here first before.
