One of Europe's biggest vegan festivals VegfestUK will be back at the Brighton Centre on March 11th 12th 2017, with a number of interesting features planned for an expected crowd of around 12,000 visitors overall: EXTRA STALLS The growing demand for exhibition space amongst small independent businesses has led to an increase in the number of stalls available to around 230 stalls and 20 caterers, with various rates available for both charities and businesses. UK VEGAN COMEDY FESTIVAL Thoroughly well received for its last 2 editions at the Brighton Centre, the comedy festival will be back in full force, with a number of headline comedians TBA. VEGAN ACTIVISTS SUMMIT Vegan activism continues to be an area of interest since its inception at VegfestUK London 2015 and VegfestUK Brighton 2017 will showcase once again a number of vegan activists with their chosen forms of activism in their communities. The summit includes a selection of bite-sized workshops, talks and discussions to empower budding activists among VegfestUK visitors. VEGAN FILM FESTIVAL A number of really captivating and potentially life-altering documentaries on vegan topics will be shown on both days. Documentaries TBA. TALKS – LIGHT TO VEGANISM Beginners to veganism will enjoy a series of talks geared for newcomers from a collection of dynamic, engaging speakers... TALKS – DEEP VEGANISM There'll also be a selection of speakers expanding on advanced philosophical topics on veganism. OTHER INTERESTING AREAS The event will also include the usual mix of Cookery Demos, Teen Zone, Mature Zone, Music, Kids Cookery Classes, Magic Shows and!
