Hello there, I love gardening so thought it would be a great idea to offer my Gardening Services locally on here ! I am no expert but I am experienced and have a good amount of general and useful knowledge that I have obtained throughout many happy Gardening years. I love my own Garden and often find myself tending to my mum's (who is 81) pots and baskets and have an eye for making the best of any area! I am friendly and nice to have around I hope, I will be able to attempt most things, and will certainly tell you if I cant. I take my time and make sure somewhere looks a lot better than when I started.. so please give me a try and hopefully I will blow away your leaves in good time. I do have some equipment and can take away any garden rubbish at no extra!
