On Sunday 7th May, volunteers from the local British Red Cross are organising a Family Fun Day at Goffs Park in Crawley. The event will feature a dog show and a range of fun stalls for all the family including face painting, a miniature railway, a children's fancy dress parade and a raffle. The Fun Day, which has been organised by local volunteer Phil Jackson to raise money for local British Red Cross services, runs from 10:30 am until 3pm. Entry to the event is free although there is a £2 entry fee to enter the dog.
