Hello, my name is Jens. I'm the founder and director of Olesen Tuition and I have worked as a German tutor for the past 18 years and university teacher for 6 years. I hold First-class undergraduate and graduate degrees from RWTH Aachen University and the LSE, and I have recently completed a D.Phil. at the University of Oxford. Throughout my teaching career, I have brought hundreds of students up to fluency and many more to intermediate level with a unique combination of tailored vocabulary training, solid grammar foundation and my challenging yet motivating teaching style. I offer small group classes of 2-5 students for £25 per person per hour or private lessons at a higher rate (details on the latter can be found on my website, a link to which is at the top of this ad). If you are not a complete beginner, there will be an assessment session in which I'm going to check your level and place you in the group that is best for you. The assessment session for students who know some German is a 15-25 mins one-one-one lesson with me and the fee is £30. If you have never studied German before, I will need to know a bit more about you before we get started; for instance, whether you have studied foreign languages before and up to what level, and then I will put you in a group with students of a similar background. I teach several evening and weekend classes at beginner, elementary, intermediate and upper-intermediate level. The group lessons take place at a quiet location in Holborn. The weekly group lessons will then be at the following rates*: 1 hour/person £25
 90 minutes/person £40

2 hours/person £50 Groups of 2 are £40 per person per hour * including teaching material (most of which I have designed myself) and homework correction outside of lessons. Please note that my tuition is subject to a 24-hour cancellation policy. In the event of a cancellation with less than 24 hours notice, the full fee will be charged. For more information about my lessons, please check my website by following the link at the top of this ad. I also provide private German lessons for those who also prefer to use the services of my current website and additional information. I look forward to hearing from you. Many thanks
