I am a qualified BACP registered counsellor working in Tunbridge Wells and Tonbridge, I work in an integrative way having trained in Humanistic, Psychodynamic and Intercultural approaches but more important than the approach we use will be the relationship we build together, one of respect, trust and honesty.

I continue to build my knowledge by continued professional development and have a very broad experience of life and the challenges we all face as human beings which I think helps me to provide a compassionate therapeutic safe space for you to explore your feelings and collaboratively we will find a way of working that suits you and your needs.

Counselling can help with problems such as:

- Anxiety
- Depression
- Low self-esteem
- Relationship issues
- Stress
- Anger
- Bereavment
- Lack of direction
- Abuse
- Trauma
