This is all mint condition wit nothing installed and hardly any use as i have the larger version. i was given this for a present in return for some work and help i did at no cost, i do not have receipt , but all is absolute working come and see and try for yourself, if you like it i will then reset it all box and contents in mint condition, quite happy to keep it if it does not sell, i can probably get some use out of it as a back up, but i prefer to use my larger one. from clean smoke free home, and lap top in shop condition. offers will not be answered these are £1449 from
