Fujitsu 50" P50XHA58EB monitor screen. Piano Black in excellent condition - no dead pixels - and comes complete with the optional table top stand which was an additional £200 when new. Remote control and manuals included. This was one of the premium high end monitors (cost £4500 at the time) and was plasma king in its time - still a great picture now. As mentioned it is a monitor therefore the picture is better than a plasma TV as these screens were used in exhibitions due to the high quality resolution picture. You will need to connect your TV box (Sky, Virgin, Freeview) as being a monitor it does not have a built in tuner. I can show you the monitor hooked up to a games console and playing a blu-ray movie. I will provide a couple of speakers but you can fit any of your own speakers to the rear connections on the monitor. It is very heavy (about 45kg) and big so you will need a high roof vehicle to transport it in as you need to keep it upright. Collection only from NN4 area. If you know about home cinema systems you will appreciate this is a premium model and priced very reasonably. Supports: SDTV 480i, 576i, 480p, 576p, HDTV 720p, 1080i X2 HDMI inputs Component Video X2 inputs Composite Video X1 input S-Video X1 input PC-VGA X1 input Full spec here <http://www.fujitsu-general.co.uk/downloads/Product%20brochures/58%20series/Cediacustominstall2>
