Beautiful Dogfriendly well presented/equipped Barn conversion in tranquil conservation area of the ancient medieval township of Laugharne. Just off the main Street it comfortably accommodates four and is within an easy walk of all shops, pubs and restaurants Laugharne has to offer. The cottage has secure and pretty sunlit gardens to the front and rear of the property with its own private car park adjacent and parking for two cars right next to the steps up to the back garden. There are many lovely estuary walks from the cottage by our spectacular castle ruins to Dylan Thomas's Boathouse where he reputedly wrote Under Milk Wood in and about Laugharne. Also the famous Browns Hotel which was a favourite watering hole is worth a visit. Laugharne is a great place for a chill out relaxing holiday and a good centre for visiting all the spectacular beaches and countryside plus tourist attractions this area has to offer.

Our season runs from April to the end of October plus Christmas, New Year, Half Term and Easter from £375 to £795 per week plus we also offer MidWeek Breaks from £75 per night all year round

Bedding and Towels are provided at no cost plus there is a Welcome Gift.

Two well behaved dogs are allowed free of charge and we provide bowls, blankets and towels for them
